The corporate governance of FRANCE BED HOLDINGS CO., LTD. (the “Company”) is described below.

I. Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Attributes and Other Basic Information

1. Basic Views

The Company acknowledges that corporate governance is the basic framework of corporate management in relation to various stakeholders, such as shareholders, customers, employees, business partners, and local communities, and that it consists of the following elements: management supervisory functions, establishment of corporate ethics, risk management, compliance, accountability (fulfillment of accountability), and improvement of management efficiency. Based on this basic framework, we believe that our greatest responsibility is to strive to advance shareholders’ interests.

In order to enhance and strengthen corporate governance, the Company has identified four issues to be addressed: strengthening the auditing function, thorough legal compliance, enhancement of IR functions, and organic revitalization of subsidiaries’ businesses.

As part of our efforts to address these issues, we will clarify and strengthen the functions of each group, etc. (Audit Group, Corporate Planning Group, Accounting/General Affairs Group, Secretarial Group, and Personnel Department) as well as the Company’s Board of Directors and Audit and Supervisory Committee, in order to improve the transparency of our management.

[Reasons for Non-compliance With the Principles of Japan’s Corporate Governance Code]

The Company complies with all of the principles of Japan’s Corporate Governance Code.

[Disclosure Based on the Principles of Japan’s Corporate Governance Code] [Updated]

[Principle 1-4 Shares Held as Cross-Shareholdings]

The Group holds cross-shareholdings for the purpose of sustainable growth and enhancement of corporate value.

The Company will periodically and continuously compare returns on individual cross-shareholdings, such as conditions of transactions and dividends received, with risk and cost of capital, and examine their reasonableness from a medium to long term perspective each year. If this verification does not demonstrate the reasonableness of holding such shares, we will proceed to reduce the number of such shares.

With respect to the exercise of voting rights pertaining to cross-shareholdings, we make decisions from the perspective of improving the medium to long term corporate value of both the Group and the issuing company for each proposal at the General Meeting of Shareholders. We will oppose any proposals that we believe will damage corporate value, and we will carefully examine the content of proposals and exercise voting rights with respect to companies that have posted losses for a certain consecutive period or have been involved in serious scandals.

[Principle 1-7 Related Party Transactions]

The Company’s “Regulations for Directors and Officers” stipulates that any transaction between related parties, such as competitive transactions and conflict-of-interest transactions, must be discussed and resolved at a meeting of the Board of Directors, and we have ensured that all Directors are fully aware of the details of such regulations.

In addition, all Directors are required to submit a “Related Party Transaction Confirmation Form” at the end of each fiscal year so that the existence of related party transactions can be checked on an ongoing basis after the fact, to ensure that no omissions occur.

[Supplementary Principle 2-4-1 Ensuring Diversity in Companies, Including Active Participation of Women]

The Company is taking measures, such as increasing the ratio of new graduates and mid-career employees, introducing a job return system, and establishing a department specializing in diversity promotion, in order to promote the activities of female employees within the Company, particularly at its operating company, FRANCE BED CO., LTD.

The Group has formulated a “Human Rights Policy” and a “Health and Safety Policy,” and regards its employees as human capital and respects their diversity, and in particular, the Group is committed to recruiting and supporting the careers of women, which is essential for business growth, and to developing and actively employing disabled and elderly people in the work sector. The Company will aim to achieve its Group-wide goals of having “35% or more female employees and 15% or more female managers by 2030,” and “3% or more employees with disabilities and 50% or more male employees taking childcare leave (maintaining 100% for female employees) by 2030.”

[Principle 2-6 Functioning as Asset Owner of Corporate Pension Funds]

The Company’s corporate pension fund is managed by the Corporate Pension Fund Asset Management Committee, which is composed of the Directors in charge of the Accounting/General Affairs Group and the persons in charge of the finance division. The Corporate Pension Fund Asset Management Committee regularly obtains information on the investment progress from the trust banks and life insurance companies that are the investment institutions and reports the information to the Board of Directors on a quarterly basis to ensure proper management of the investment progress.

[Principle 3-1 Enhancement of Information Disclosure]

The Company acknowledges that information disclosure is one of the most important management issues and that it is essential to disclose appropriate information to gain the understanding of our stakeholders, including our shareholders. To fulfill this obligation, in addition to disclosures required by laws and regulations, the Company discloses information to the public through its website and shareholder newsletters, including non-financial information that is deemed important to stakeholders.

(1) Company objectives (e.g., corporate philosophy), management strategies and business plans.

The Company discloses its corporate philosophy, management strategies, and medium-term management plan on its website, in shareholder newsletters, and in financial results briefing materials.

(2) Basic views and policies on corporate governance

The Company’s basic views and policies on corporate governance are described in this report.

(3) Policies and procedures of the Board of Directors in determining the remuneration of the senior management and Directors

Described in this report under “II 1. [Director Remuneration] Disclosure of Policy for Determining Remuneration Amounts or Calculation Methods Thereof.”

(4) Policies and procedures of the Board of Directors in the appointment/removal of the senior management and nominations of Director candidates

Nominations of candidates for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) are deliberated on by the Nomination and Compensation Committee in consultation with the Board of Directors, which provides advice and recommendations to the Board of Directors, followed by deliberation by the Audit and Supervisory Committee, and approval by the Board of Directors. In appointing candidates for Independent External Directors, nominations will be those who can fulfill their roles and responsibilities from a professional and objective perspective, including management experience at other companies, such as providing advice on improving corporate value over the medium to long term and supervising management, based on the Nomination and Compensation Committee’s selection criteria and independence standards.

Removal of Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) shall be decided when there is any fraud or unjust action as Directors or when they are found to be unqualified, upon consultation with the Board of Directors, by the Nomination and Compensation Committee, which shall provide advice and recommendations to the Board of Directors, followed by deliberation by the Audit and Supervisory Committee, and approval by the Board of Directors.

(5) Explanations with respect to individual appointments and removals of the senior management and nominations of Director candidates

The reasons for the nomination of each candidate for Director are disclosed in the Notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders. In the event of removal, an explanation will be provided through disclosure in a timely manner.

[Principle 3-1-3 Initiatives for Sustainability, etc.]

In our medium-term management plan, we have set forth the “Promotion of sustainability management” and have identified six themes as important issues (material issues) for society and that could have an impact on our Group’s value over the medium to long term: (1) Efficient use of resources, (2) CO2 emission reduction and energy conversion, (3) Provision of more secure, safer and more highly valued products and services, (4) Development of human resources, and (5) Promotion of diversity and work-life balance, and also (6) the foundations that support our business: (i) Governance, (ii) Compliance, and (iii) Sound finances.

In addition to introducing the relationship with the SDGs, the sustainability information page of the Company’s website includes a message from the top management, basic policies such as the “Environmental Management Policy,” “Human Rights Policy,” and “Health and Safety Policy,” as well as initiatives on ESG issues.

The Company will also disclose information on our response to climate change in accordance with TCFD recommendations, including quantitative disclosure of risks and opportunities, progress of governance structure, indicators and targets for greenhouse gas emissions, and others.

[Supplementary Principle 4-1-1 Roles and Responsibilities of the Board of Directors (1)]

The Company's Board of Directors, as a pure holding company, has the important responsibility to supervise the business execution of subsidiaries and to unify the Company's intentions as a corporate group.

The Company's Board of Directors then defines the areas of responsibility of each Director and delegates the authority to make decisions on business execution to each Director in accordance with the "Regulations on Division of Duties" and "Regulations on Administrative Authority," etc., and each Director strives to achieve the Group's management targets through the achievement of business targets in their area of responsibility.

[Principle 4-9 Independence Standards and Qualifications for Independent External Directors]

The Company selects candidates for Independent External Directors based on the criteria set forth in the Companies Act and the Tokyo Stock Exchange, after the Nomination and Compensation Committee deliberates on the candidates in consultation with the Board of Directors, provides advice and recommendations to the Board of Directors, and the Board of Directors deliberates on the candidates.

[Supplementary Principle 4-10-1 Use of Optional Approaches]

The Company has established a Nomination and Compensation Committee under the Board of Directors, consisting of six Directors, including four External Directors, in order to strengthen the independence, objectivity, and accountability of the Board of Directors' functions related to the nomination and remuneration of senior management and Directors. The Nomination and Compensation Committee shall provide advice and recommendations on matters concerning the election and removal of Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) and succession planning (including training), which are matters to be resolved at the General Meeting of Shareholders, as its nomination function, and shall deliberate and report on matters ensuring transparency and fairness in determining Directors' remuneration as its remuneration function, in an effort to obtain appropriate involvement and advice when considering particularly important matters.

[Supplementary Principle 4-11-1 Preconditions for Ensuring Effectiveness of the Board of Directors and Board of Auditors]

The Company, as the holding company responsible for the Group's strategic functions, shall have the basic role of ensuring the efficient management of the entire Group through the development of a management vision, the planning of management strategies, and the optimal allocation of management resources, and manage its subsidiaries as a unified Group with shared business strategies, while taking into account the business characteristics of each subsidiary company.

Each Director that comprises the Board of Directors shall be expected to be familiar with the business of the segment for which he/she is responsible, as well as to have advanced business management skills, extensive knowledge necessary for the management of a pure holding company, and strong leadership. The Independent External Directors shall be expected to participate as members of the Board of Directors with a high degree of independence as well as proven records of performance as corporate managers, in-depth knowledge in specific fields of expertise, high levels of insight on legal compliance, and high level of knowledge on finance and accounting in order to incorporate the perspectives of diverse stakeholders into management oversight, thereby ensuring transparency and enhancing corporate value.

Nominations of candidates for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) are deliberated on by the Nomination and Compensation Committee in consultation with the Board of Directors, which provides advice and recommendations to the Board of Directors, followed by deliberation by the Audit and Supervisory Committee, and approval by the Board of Directors. In appointing candidates for Independent External Directors, nominations will be those who can fulfill their roles and responsibilities from a professional and objective perspective, including management experience at other companies, such as providing advice on improving corporate value over the medium to long term and supervising management, based on the Nomination and Compensation Committee's selection criteria and independence standards.

Based on these considerations, the Company's Board of Directors is limited to 15 members to enable prompt management decisions, and currently consists of 9 Directors, including four External Directors.

In addition, a skills matrix listing the knowledge, experience, abilities, etc. of each Director has been prepared and is included on the last page of this report.

[Supplementary Principle 4-11-2 Preconditions for Ensuring Effectiveness of the Board of Directors and Board of Auditors]

The Company discloses the status of concurrent positions of its External Directors with other companies every year through the Notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders, Annual Securities Report, and Report on Corporate Governance, etc. One of our Directors, including an External Director, is concurrently serving as a Director of a listed company as of June 29, 2026.

[Supplementary Principle 4-11-3 Preconditions for Ensuring Effectiveness of the Board of Directors and Board of Auditors]

Our Company conducts a questionnaire survey of its Directors from March to April every year as part of the ongoing efforts to ensure the effectiveness of the Board of Directors. The content of the questionnaire is not limited to abstract questions, but is formulated to reflect our Company's specific management issues and priority themes for governance, with the aim of achieving more effective evaluations. This fiscal year, we conducted a questionnaire from March 27, 2026 to April 10, 2026 and reported the results at the Board of Directors meeting held in May 2026. As a result of the evaluation, it was confirmed that the Board of Directors is generally effective in terms of its structure and operation, as well as in deliberations and information sharing.

Based on the evaluation results, our Company has positioned sustainability initiatives, which have become increasingly important in recent years, as an important theme, with the aim of further enhancing the quality of the Board of Directors and making it a forum for more strategic and constructive discussions. To achieve this, in addition to strategically organizing agenda items, the Company is working to enhance discussions and decision-making within the Board of Directors through initiatives such as improving operational efficiency, simplifying reporting procedures, and sharing meeting materials at an early stage. In addition, the Company is working to secure sufficient time for discussion on key themes by reviewing the allocation of time and streamlining reporting matters. Through these initiatives, the Company aims to further deepen the role of the Board of Directors as an essential forum for substantive discussions that contribute to the enhancement of medium- to long-term corporate value.

The results of this year's survey indicated that there were expectations for further enhancement of discussions on the "long-term vision and business strategy" and the "effective use of management resources" at the Board of Directors. In light of this, the Board of Directors will further advance discussions and direction-setting from a medium- to long-term perspective, taking a cross-functional approach to the allocation of management resources across the entire Group, rather than being limited to individual business units. In addition to growth strategies, these discussions will also cover investment and the review of the business portfolio.

In addition, for the purpose of acquiring the knowledge required for Directors and sharing understanding, the Company invited external lecturers and held a study session in February 2026 (on "unsolicited takeover proposals"). The Company will continue to make improvements aimed at enhancing the effectiveness of the Board of Directors while making use of such initiatives.

[Supplementary Principle 4-14-2 Training for Directors and Auditors]

The Company provides opportunities for Directors to acquire necessary information and knowledge on business and management at the time of their appointment and from time to time after their appointment for them to effectively fulfill their roles and responsibilities, and also conducts internal study sessions on compliance and other related matters. In addition, in this fiscal year, newly appointed directors of our subsidiaries attended a training program titled "Roles and Responsibilities of Directors," organized by the Japan Audit & Supervisory Board Members Association. Through this program, they deepened their understanding of the legal knowledge and responsibilities required of directors.

[Principle 5-1 Policy for Constructive Dialogue With Shareholders]

The Company appoints a Director in charge of IR and designates the General Affairs Department as the IR department. The Company holds semi-annual financial results meetings for shareholders and investors, at which the Representative Director, Chairman and President directly explains management policies and financial conditions, etc., and also distributes the information on the company's website.

Furthermore, the Company holds one-on-one meetings with institutional investors and analysts, in which the Director in charge of IR participates and provides explanations of business performance.

[Measures to Promote Management With an Awareness of Cost of Capital and Share Price]

[Current Status Analysis]

In pursuing management that takes capital costs into account, our company believes it is important to ensure the stability and sustainability of its earnings structure in addition to the growth potential of its business. Our group, which operates primarily in the welfare and medical fields, has a demand base that is relatively immune to economic fluctuations. However, in recent years, costs have continued to increase, including soaring raw material and logistics costs and rising wages, which have had a growing impact on profitability and capital efficiency.

In order to maintain and strengthen our earnings base and operational efficiency in this environment, it is essential not only to expand sales but also to enhance “the quality of management”, including our cost structure and the use of capital. In particular, we recognize that strengthening our earnings structure through productivity and cost efficiency improvements and restoring capital efficiency are key management issues to be addressed with priority for our Company.

Our company will work to improve our earnings structure and capital efficiency by improving productivity and reviewing our business portfolio, and to improve the quality of management in light of capital costs.

[Basic Policy on Management with an Awareness of Capital Costs]

Our group operates multiple businesses with different business characteristics and market environments, and the management perspective required for each business area differs. In implementing management in light of capital costs, we need to appropriately review the allocation of management resources and earnings structure while taking into account these differences in business characteristics.

Our company believes that it is important to strengthen the business foundation over the medium to long term in areas where stable growth is expected, and to conduct management that emphasizes capital efficiency and profitability in areas where the environment is subject to significant changes. In addition, in an environment where wage increases and costs such as raw material and logistics costs continue to increase, it is necessary not to simply accumulate management resources, but to raise productivity through a review of business processes and digitalization, leading to an improvement in the earnings structure.

By continuing these initiatives, we will achieve both business stability and efficiency, and improve capital efficiency.

[Specific initiatives]

1. Review of business portfolio

In the medical services business, in addition to strengthening core businesses related to the long-term care insurance system, we have diversified our earnings base by working to expand rentals not covered by long-term care insurance. As part of these efforts, we are strengthening our business base through acquisition of customers and M & A, and in the linen business, we are responding to demand for rental amenity sets and contributing to improving convenience in medical settings. In the home furnishings and health business, we are optimizing our production and sales systems in light of changes in the market environment and demand structure.

On the production side, we are consolidating production functions and integrating models in the wooden furniture production division in order to improve productivity. On the sales side, we are reviewing our exhibition halls based on their profitability, visitor trends, and regional characteristics, and closing unprofitable exhibition halls to improve the efficiency of our sales system.

Through these efforts, we are reviewing the positioning and operational structure of each business, and promoting the optimal allocation of management resources and the strengthening of our business foundation.

2. Review of Product Portfolio

Across all businesses, we are promoting the optimization of our product mix, the expansion of product lineups, and the enhancement of our products offering capabilities, thereby improving the value of product and service provided to customers and enhancing profitability.

In the medical services business, in light of the expected continued growth in the population aged 75 and over, we will maintain and further enhance the product and service provision capabilities developed under the long-term care insurance system, while further strengthening our product lineup that contributes to ensuring safety and reducing operational burden in nursing care and medical settings. Through proposals that combine these products and services, we are working to strengthen our solution-providing capabilities to address the needs of households and on-site operations. We also contribute to improving operational efficiency and labor saving in the field through the provision of ICT equipment, such as beds with monitoring sensors for hospitals and facilities.

In addition, leveraging such expertise accumulated in our rental business through welfare equipment lending, we are expanding our handling of daily life support-related products, including hearing aids, beyond the scope of the long-term care insurance system, by also addressing a wide range of everyday challenges, and developing a product lineup that meets diverse user needs.

In the home furnishings and health business, we are promoting product strategies targeting customers who value quality and functionality rather than price, while optimizing our product mix and strengthening sales. In addition to expanding high value-added products such as “Master Select” down duvets, we are improving profitability through initiatives such as the renewal of core mattresses and optimization of models and product lineup based on demand trends. Furthermore, we are responding to the diversification of sales methods by developing and selling products suitable for e-commerce.

3. Growth Investment

Based on the characteristics of our business and future demand, we have focused on allocating management resources to the senior-care business. In addition, in the frontline areas such as sales activities, logistics, and maintenance, we are working to improve operational efficiency by reviewing operational flows and digitizing procedures. We are also working to steadily improve productivity at our service centers and warehouses by promoting work standardization and the use of digital technology.

4. Shareholder Return Policy

Taking into account the balance between financial soundness and investment for growth, our basic policy for shareholder returns is to provide stable dividends. We aim for a consolidated payout ratio of 50%, and paid a dividend of ¥41 for the fiscal year ended March 2026, an increase of ¥1 from the previous fiscal year. We also plan to increase the dividend to ¥42 for the fiscal year ending March 2027.

In addition, in order to improve capital efficiency and enhance shareholder value, we will continue to carry out share repurchases and other initiatives.

Our company has been conducting management that considers the use of capital and the quality of its earnings structure in accordance with the business environment and business characteristics. We are building a foundation for improving the quality of our management by business portfolio and product reviewing, as well as continuous efforts to improve productivity. Going forward, we will continue to appropriately review the allocation of management resources and business operations, with the aim of continuously improving corporate value.

Responses to realize such management with consideration to capital cost and stock price are available on Our Company website. Please refer to:

Cooperation Among Audit and Supervisory Committee, Accounting Auditor and Internal Audit Division [Updated]

As an internal audit organization, the Audit Office (7 members) has been established under the direct control of the Representative Director, Chairman and President. The Audit Office, in cooperation with the Audit and Supervisory Committee, conducts internal audits of the Company's divisions and subsidiaries to ensure compliance with laws and regulations and the efficiency of business activities, and provides specific advice and recommendations for operational improvements.

In order to ensure that audits by the Audit and Supervisory Committee are conducted effectively, the Audit and Supervisory Committee works closely with the Audit Office, including obtaining explanations from the Audit Office regarding the details of internal audits concerning each division of the Company and its subsidiaries. In addition, the Audit and Supervisory Committee reviews the annual audit plan and meets regularly with the Accounting Auditor to obtain reports on the results of semiannual reviews and year-end audits, and when necessary, the Audit and Supervisory Committee attends the mid-term and year-end audits to obtain reports and explanations on each occasion, thereby promoting mutual cooperation.

In addition, the Company strives to ensure and stipulate that Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) and employees have a better understanding of audits by the Audit and Supervisory Committee, and to create an environment conducive to audits by the Audit and Supervisory Committee, and shall report to the Audit and Supervisory Committee on the execution of their duties through meetings of the Board of Directors and other important meetings, report the results of audits conducted by the internal audit division, and provide the Audit and Supervisory Committee with access to approval documents and other important documents related to business execution upon request by the Audit and Supervisory Committee, and must report to the Audit and Supervisory Committee any occurrence or threat of occurrence of matters that may cause material losses to the Group, or any discovery of illegal or improper acts by Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) or employees. Furthermore, in addition to the aforementioned reporting requirements, the Company stipulates that Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) and employees must report to the Audit and Supervisory Committee on matters that the Audit and Supervisory Committee determines should be reported.

In addition, in regard to the relationship with the internal control division is as described in "IV Matters Related to Internal Control System 1. Basic Views on Internal Control System and Progress of System Development," the Audit and Supervisory Committee works closely with the accounting and general affairs, corporate planning, and secretarial divisions involved in internal control, receiving reports and explanations from them as necessary and attends every meeting of the Information Management Committee, which examines matters related to the Group's internal controls, as a member of the committee.

Supplementary Explanation [Updated]

Details of Remuneration, etc. for Officers

The amount of remuneration, etc. for the Company's Directors for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2026 was ¥232,852 thousand, consisting of ¥188,452 thousand for five Directors who are not Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and ¥44,400 thousand for five Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members (including ¥33,000 thousand for four External Directors). As the Company has no Directors who concurrently serve as employees, the amount of remuneration, etc. of Directors also does not include the amount of employee salaries of Directors who concurrently serve as employees.

Policy for Determining the Amount of remuneration or the Calculation Method [Updated]

On May 15, 2024, the Board of Directors of Our Company adopted the following resolution (partially revising the resolution of February 25, 2021) to set a policy for determining the content of remuneration, etc. for each individual member of the Board of Directors.

1. Basic Policy

The remuneration for Executive Director of Our Company shall be a remuneration system that is linked to shareholders' interest so that it can fully function as an incentive for the sustainable improvement of corporate value. The remuneration system shall be highly linked to business performance and reflect each Director's level of contribution to the Company's business performance according to the content of his/her job as well as his/her title. The basic policy in determining the remuneration for individual Executive Directors shall be an appropriate level that enables Directors to maximize their potential for the improvement of Our Company's corporate value over the medium to long term.

Specifically, the remuneration for Executive Directors (excluding Outside Directors) shall be paid as follows: (i) basic remuneration as fixed remuneration (monthly remuneration) (ii) Performance-based monetary remuneration as variable remuneration and (iii) stock-based remuneration. The remuneration for Outside Directors who are in a position independent from the execution of the operations of Our Company shall be a fixed basic remuneration (monthly remuneration) only, in light of their responsibilities.

2. Matters to be determined for each type of remuneration (policy for determining the amounts and calculation methods thereof)

(1) Basic remuneration (monetary remuneration)

The basic remuneration shall be a fixed monthly remuneration, the amount of which shall be calculated according to the position, the nature of duties and the number of years of service, etc., comprehensively taking into consideration the level of other companies, the level of remuneration of employees, and the business performance of the Company, etc.

(2) Performance-based Monetary Remuneration

Performance-based monetary remuneration shall consist of monetary remuneration that reflects performance indicators (KPI) that are highly linked to business results so as to raise awareness of improving business results in each fiscal year and to appropriately reflect the contribution of individual executive directors to the Company's business results. The total amount to be paid is determined by taking into consideration the increase or decrease from the previous fiscal year of consolidated ordinary profit and the corresponding increase or decrease in shareholder returns such as dividends, etc. The amount to be paid to each individual is determined by distributing the amount according to the degree of achievement of the target value of each executive director's duties and the degree of contribution to the Company's performance, etc.

The total amount of performance-based monetary remuneration recorded for the fiscal year was 84.0% of the previous year, and the achievement rate of the planned consolidated ordinary profit, which serves as the basis for the contribution to the business performance of each individual, was 91.2%.

(3) Stock-based remuneration (non-monetary remuneration)

Stock-based remunerations aim to promote profit-sharing among Executive Directors and shareholders, and to strengthen the incentive to improve medium- to long-term corporate value, and are provided in the form of restricted shares of the Company (new shares or treasury shares), which are subject to the condition that they shall not be transferred, created a security interest on, or otherwise disposed of for a predetermined period (hereinafter referred to as "Transfer Restriction"). There are two types of stock-based remuneration: the "tenure conditions-type restricted stock-based remuneration," which is contingent upon the eligible Director's continuous service as an Executive Director, etc., of the Company for a specified period of time.; and the "performance conditions-type restricted stock-based remuneration," which, in addition to the condition above, is subject to the conditions such as achieving the performance targets predetermined by the Company's Board of Directors to improve the Company's corporate value over the medium term.

For the grant of restricted shares, the Company will pay to eligible Executive Directors, a lump sum in the form of monetary remuneration claims equivalent to the consideration for execution of duties depending on the position, etc. of each Director as predetermined by the Board of Directors. In principle, for tenure conditions-type restricted stock-based remuneration, the consideration shall be for one year from the appointment of the Director (reappointment included) to the expiration of their term of service; and for performance conditions-type restricted stock-based remuneration, the consideration shall be for the number of years from the appointment of the Director (reappointment included) to the end of the period of the medium-term management plan prepared by the Company. The Director will pay in all of such remuneration as property contributed in kind.

The price per share to be paid in this case shall be based on the closing price per share for the Company's common shares on the Tokyo Stock Exchange as of the business day immediately before the date of resolution by the Board of Directors, and shall be determined by the Board of Directors within a range that is not particularly favorable to the Directors eligible for allotment of such common shares. The number of shares to be individually granted is also determined based on the above.

3. Matters concerning overall remuneration

(1) Policy for determining percentage for each type of remuneration, etc.

The percentage for each type of remuneration, etc., shall be based on remuneration levels determined using companies with business scales on par with the Company and companies in related business sectors and business categories. Officers holding higher positions will have greater weight in performance-based remuneration.

Remuneration Type	Fixed Remuneration	Variable remuneration
	Basic Remuneration (Monthly Remuneration)	Performance-based Monetary Remuneration (Monetary Remuneration)	Stock-based Remuneration (Non-monetary Remuneration)
Percentage	60	35	5

(Note 1) With respect to the stock-based remuneration, total of the cost amortization of two kinds of restricted stock granted, namely, tenure conditions-type and performance conditions-type restricted stock-based remuneration.

(Note 2) The percentage of variable remuneration is calculated based on the amount to be paid if the KPI, which serves as the basis for calculation of the amount of Performance-based monetary remuneration, is achieved by 100%.

(2) Policy for determining the timing or conditions for granting remuneration

a. Basic remuneration

The Remuneration shall be a fixed monthly salary.

b. Performance-based Monetary Remuneration

The Performance-based monetary remuneration shall be paid once a year within four months from the end of the fiscal year.

c. Stock-based remuneration (non-monetary remuneration)

Restricted stock-based remuneration in the form of stock-based remuneration shall, in principle, be granted within one month following the decision at the meeting of the Board of Directors held within one month after the conclusion of an ordinary general meeting of shareholders to persons newly elected or reelected to Executive Directors of the Company, and shall be paid with the lifting of Transfer Restrictions at the time the Transfer Restriction period expires based on the below agreement.

The granting of stock-based remuneration shall be subject to the conclusion of an agreement between the Company and Executive Directors eligible for granting, and the agreement shall include the following terms:

- (i) in principle, the period while the Executive Directors were in service in a position as an officer or employee of the Company or its subsidiary that is predetermined by the Board of Directors of the Company shall be the Transfer Restriction period.
- (ii) during the Transfer Restriction period, Executive Directors are prohibited from transferring to a third party, creating a security interest on, or otherwise disposing in anyway of the granted shares.
- (iii) during the Transfer Restriction period, should certain events arise, the Company must acquire all or part of such shares without consideration.
- (iv) tenure conditions-type restricted stock-based remuneration shall be subject to the Executive Director continuously serving in a position as an officer or employee of the Company or subsidiary that is predetermined by the Board of Directors of the Company for a certain period of time.
- (v) in addition to the conditions in (iv), for performance conditions-type restricted stock-based remuneration, the number of shares for which Transfer Restrictions will be lifted shall be determined in accordance with the degree of achievement of performance targets set in advance in the medium-term management plan, etc. by the Board of Directors of the Company, such as consolidated return on equity (consolidated ROE).
- (vi) after the Transfer Restriction period has terminated, all or part of the Transfer Restrictions on the shares granted shall be lifted in accordance with certain conditions.

4. Method of determining the contents of individual remuneration, etc.

With regard to the amount of individual remuneration for Executive Directors and External Directors who are not Audit and Supervisory Committee Members of the Company, the Company may delegate the specific content thereof to the Representative Director and President based on a resolution of the Board of Directors. Said authority shall consist of performing the evaluation and allocation of the amount of basic remuneration for each Executive Director and External Director who is not an Audit and Supervisory Committee Member and performance-based monetary remuneration for Executive Directors within the limits of the total amount of remuneration, etc., resolved at the General Meeting of Shareholders. The Board of Directors shall consult on drafts and receive advice and recommendations from the Nomination and Compensation Committee, the majority of which are composed of Independent External Directors, to ensure that such authority is properly exercised by the Representative Director and President. The Representative Director and President who is delegated shall respect the advice and recommendations of the Nomination and Compensation Committee to the Board of Directors and make decisions.

Note that, for stock-based remunerations, the number of shares to be allocated for each individual Executive Director will be determined by the Board of Directors based on the advice and recommendations of the Nomination and Compensation

Committee within the limits of the total amount of remuneration, etc., resolved at the General Meeting of Shareholders separately of basic remuneration, performance-based monetary remuneration, and other forms of monetary remunerations. (Matters Relating to Resolutions at Shareholders Meetings)

The maximum amounts of remuneration for each category of officers are as follows:

Category	Type of remuneration	Date of resolution	Limit on amount of remunerations (Annual amount)	Number of eligible officers at the time of resolution
Director (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members)	Monetary remuneration	June 23, 2017 (14th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders)	¥ 220 million	5 persons
	Non-monetary remuneration (Restricted stock-based remuneration)	June 23, 2017 (14th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders)	¥ 100 million	5 persons
Director (Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members)	Monetary remuneration	June 24, 2016 (13th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders)	¥ 70 million	3 persons

5. Matters regarding Nomination and Compensation Committee

The Company has a Nomination and Compensation Committee for the purpose of clarifying the remuneration determination process pertaining to the remuneration of Directors who are not Audit and Supervisory Committee Members of the Company and Group companies introducing the restricted stock-based remuneration system, and ensuring the transparency and fairness in determining the remuneration.

The Nomination and Compensation Committee shall consist of at least three Committee members including the Representative Director elected by the Board of Directors, the majority of which must be composed of Independent External Directors. The Nomination and Compensation Committee Chair shall be selected by resolution of the Committee.

The Nomination and Compensation Committee, in consultation with the Board of Directors of the Company and its Group companies seeking advice on the remunerations, etc. of Directors who are not Audit and Supervisory Committee Members of the Company and Group companies introducing the restricted stock-based remuneration system, shall deliberate and provide advice and recommendations to the Board of Directors on such matters as: (1) a policy on determining the content of remuneration, etc. for each individual Director who is not an Audit and Supervisory Committee Member (including the selection of performance and other metrics serving as evaluation metrics for performance-based monetary remuneration, and standards for granting stock-based remunerations); and (2) content of remuneration, etc. for each individual Director who is not an Audit and Supervisory Committee Member.

[Supporting System for External Directors]

Handled by the relevant department as appropriate.

2. Matters on Functions of Business Execution, Audit and Supervision, Nomination and Remuneration Decisions (Overview of Current Corporate Governance System) [Updated]

Since the Company has transitioned to a company with an Audit and Supervisory Committee, the Board of Directors, Audit and Supervisory Committee, and Accounting Auditor have been established as the main organs of the corporate governance system, and the Nomination and Compensation Committee, Audit Office (Audit Group), Information Management Committee, and Sustainability Committee have been established as supplementary organs.

The corporate governance structure of our Group is as shown in the “Corporate Governance Structure” in the reference material.

A. Board of Directors

To enable prompt management decisions, the Board of Directors is chaired by Representative Director, Chairman and President Shigeru Ikeda and consists of 9 Directors: Representative Director and Vice President Kazumi Ikeda, Directors Tatsuhiro Kuwata, and Akihiko Osada, and Director who is an Audit and Supervisory Committee Member Akihito Kimura, External Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members Shuichi Nakamura, Satoshi Watanabe, Shigeo Yamashita, and Noriko Otsuka. The Board of Directors makes decisions on important business operations and other legally stipulated matters every month. In addition, the Representative Directors of the subsidiaries are invited to attend the Board of Directors meetings to report on their monthly business performance and supervise the execution of business operations by the subsidiaries, thereby ensuring the unity of intent of the corporate group as a whole. In the 23rd term, Board of Directors meetings were held 17 times to make decisions on important business operations and deliberate and report on important management matters, including reports on the monthly consolidated earnings and progress of the medium-term management plan, approval of planned budgets and financial results, and approval of purchases of assets and implementation of loans.

B. Audit and Supervisory Committee

The Audit and Supervisory Committee is chaired by External Director Shuichi Nakamura and consists of five Audit and Supervisory Committee Members: External Directors Satoshi Watanabe, Shigeo Yamashita, and Noriko Otsuka, and Director Akihito Kimura, and meets regularly once a month under the chairmanship of the committee chairperson, as well as on an as needed basis. In the 23rd term, Audit and Supervisory Committee meetings were held 14 times.

Each Audit and Supervisory Committee Member conducts audits utilizing the internal control system, requests necessary reports and investigations from Directors, etc., and inspects important approval documents, etc., in accordance with the policies, etc., established by the Audit and Supervisory Committee.

They also attend important meetings of the Board of Directors, the Information Management Committee, and the Internal Control Committee, and work with the Internal Audit Office, the Accounting Auditor, and the Corporate Planning Department to strengthen the auditing and supervisory functions of management. The four External Directors have no business relationships or other interests with the Company, and all of them satisfy the requirements for independence as required of independent officers.

C. Nomination and Compensation Committee

The Nomination and Compensation Committee is chaired by Representative Director, Chairman and President Shigeru Ikeda and consists of six Directors: Representative Director and Vice President Kazumi Ikeda, External Directors Shuichi Nakamura, Satoshi Watanabe, Shigeo Yamashita, and Noriko Otsuka, and is established as an advisory body to the Board of Directors. The authority and function of the Nomination and Compensation Committee is to deliberate on the following matters and to provide advice and recommendations to the Company's Board of Directors: (1) With respect to remuneration, etc. for Directors who are not Audit and Supervisory Committee Members of the Company and its Group companies (hereinafter referred to as the "Subject Companies") that have adopted a restricted stock-based remuneration system, (i) Policies concerning decisions regarding the details of individual remuneration, etc. for Directors who are not Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, (ii) Details of individual remuneration, etc. for each individual Director who is not an Audit and Supervisory Committee Member, etc., and (2) With respect to the nomination, etc. of Directors of the Company, etc., (i) Matters relating to the composition of the Board of Directors, (ii) Matters relating to the election and removal of Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members), which are matters to be resolved at the General Meeting of Shareholders, (iii) Matters relating to the selection and removal of Representative Directors and Directors with special titles, (iv) Criteria for selecting Representative Directors, (v) Matters relating to the criteria for determining the independence of External Directors, (vi) Matters relating to succession planning (including training), and (vii) Matters concerning the appointment and dismissal of Directors of specified subsidiaries of the Company, etc. This Committee discusses the nomination of Directors of the Subject Companies and the remuneration system in general, prepares drafts of basic policy, and consults with the Board of Directors of the Subject Companies, and the Board of Directors of the Subject Companies references the consultation to determine the amount of remuneration including individual remuneration and other policies such as the selection of Directors. In the 23rd term, 3 meetings were held.

D. Audit Office (Audit Group)

The Audit Office is directly supervised by the Representative Director, Chairman and President to ensure sufficient checks and balances on the audited departments, etc., and its 7 members, including Manager of the Audit Office Takashi Yamaga, conduct internal audits of the Company's divisions and subsidiaries to ensure compliance with laws and regulations and the efficiency of business activities, etc., in cooperation with the Audit and Supervisory Committee, and provide specific advice and recommendations for business improvement. Internal audits are also conducted from the perspective of efficiency, and necessary measures are taken based on the results of such internal audits to ensure the efficiency of the execution of duties.

E. Information Management Committee

Since the Company is a holding company, its objective is to control and manage the business activities of its subsidiaries. In order to fulfill this objective, it is necessary to establish a centralized information management system for the Company and the Group, and the Information Management Committee has been established as an organization to collect, manage, and control corporate information (including that of subsidiaries). Director Akihiko Osada (concurrently serves as the person responsible for the handling of information for the Stock Exchange) currently serves as Chair of the Committee, which is composed of 15 members as follows: Director who is an Audit and Supervisory Committee Member Akihito Kimura, - Manager of the Audit Office Takashi Yamaga, General Manager of the Corporate Planning Department Naoki Ueyama, General Manager of the Human Resource Department Kenji Kitamura, General Manager of the General Affairs Department of the Company and a subsidiary Katsuhiko Mori, Vice General Manager of the General Affairs Department of the Company and a subsidiary Hiroshi Horikochi, General Manager of the Administrative Department of the Company and a subsidiary Yoshitaka Takeuchi, Executive Officer and General Manager of the Administrative Department of a subsidiary Kenji Gotoh, General Manager of Corporate Strategy Department of a subsidiary Hideki Kawai, General Manager of the Administrative Department of a subsidiary Kenzo Hashimoto, Section Manager of the Administrative Section of a subsidiary Shinya Seki, Manager of the Administrative Department of a subsidiary Youichi Higuchi, Deputy Manager of General Affairs of the Administrative Headquarters of a subsidiary Akihiro Iseya, and Section Manager of the Administrative Section of a subsidiary Tomoaki Shinomiya. This Committee holds regular meetings (once a month) to discuss predetermined agenda items and special meetings to address urgent or unexpected events, and its activities include the collection, management, and control of corporate information, as well as consideration of internal control matters such as risk management and compliance, in order to promote the integration of timely disclosure systems and corporate governance in a cross-sectional and efficient manner among Group companies. Activities of the Committee are reported at monthly meetings of the Board of Directors, which were held 12 times during the 23rd term.

F. Sustainability Committee

The Company established the Sustainability Committee on May 1, 2023 as an organization to promote sustainability management and realization of two goals of “resolving social issues” and “achieving corporate growth” through its business activities. In order to practice sustainable management, this Committee will identify priority issues (materiality) related to sustainability, set goals, formulate overall plans, monitor progress, and evaluate achievements, and will report to the Board of Directors on a regular basis.

The Sustainability Committee is led by Representative Director, Chairman and President Shigeru Ikeda and chaired by Representative Director and Vice President Kazumi Ikeda, and is composed of 6 committee members including: Directors Tatsuhiro Kuwata, and Akihiko Osada, and Executive Officers Masaaki Oyama, and Toshiya Yonemoto and General Manager of the Corporate Planning Department Naoki Ueyama . This Committee holds regular meetings in May to review the reports on activity results of the previous year and to approve the activity plans for the current fiscal year, and in November to conduct interim monitoring, and also holds work sessions on individual topics as necessary.

G. Accounting Auditor

Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu LLC is responsible for the accounting audit based on the Companies Act and the accounting audit based on the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act. There are no special interests between the said audit firm and the managing partners of the said firm who are engaged in the audit of the Company. In addition to regular accounting audits, the Company consults with the Accounting Auditor from time to time to discuss and review important accounting issues.

H. Status of attorneys and other third parties

For important legal issues and compliance-related events, the Company consults with its corporate lawyer and other attorneys and conducts necessary reviews.

I. System and organization for business execution

• Executive Officer System

The Company has introduced an Executive Officer System to strengthen the business execution functions. Under this system, Executive Officers who are appointed by the Board of Directors reinforce and expand the operations under their control in accordance with the decisions of the Board of Directors, with the aim of building a management structure that can respond promptly and accurately to changes in the business environment.

3. Reasons for Adoption of Current Corporate Governance System

The Company has transitioned to a company with an Audit and Supervisory Committee, in which the Audit and Supervisory Committee consists of five members, including four External Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members with secured independence, for the purpose of continuous improvement of corporate value.

This is intended to ensure that the Board of Directors’ auditing and supervisory functions will be reinforced and the corporate governance system will be further enhanced through the exercise of voting rights at Board of Directors meetings by Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and the establishment of an Audit and Supervisory Committee consisting of a majority of External Directors.

- The Group is prohibited from disclosing the content of a whistleblower's report or personal information obtained in an investigation without justifiable reason, and shall not treat a whistleblower in a disadvantageous manner because of such fact.

- We acknowledge that the proper protection of personal information is a social responsibility of the Group, and have established a basic policy regarding the protection of personal information, and strive to strengthen information security and protect personal information.

- The Company has established an Audit Office as its internal audit organization. The Audit Office, which is directly supervised by the Representative Director, Chairman and President to ensure sufficient checks and balances on audited departments, etc., conducts internal audits of the Group with respect to compliance with laws and regulations, etc., efficiency of business activities, etc., in cooperation with the Audit and Supervisory Committee, and provides specific advice and recommendations for improvement of business operations.

- Important legal issues and compliance-related events in our Group shall be discussed with our corporate lawyer and other attorneys for review as necessary.

- In addition to regular accounting audits, they consult and review important accounting issues with the Accounting Auditor from time to time.

(ii). System for the preservation and management of information concerning the execution of duties of the Company's Directors

- The system for the preservation and management of information concerning the execution of duties of the Company's Directors is subject to the "Document Control Regulations" which stipulate the regulations for creation, preservation, and destruction of documents, and shall be submitted immediately upon request from Directors or Audit and Supervisory Committee Members for inspection of these documents.

- Information management by the Company's Directors and employees in the course of their duties is addressed through the establishment of regulations related to information security, as well as a basic policy regarding the protection of personal information.

(iii). System to ensure efficient execution of duties by the Directors of the Group

- The Board of Directors of the Group delegates the authority to make decisions on business operations to the Directors, after clarifying the areas for which each Director is responsible. Each Director strives to achieve the management objectives of the Group as a whole through the achievement of business objectives related to their area of responsibility.

- The Company has introduced an Executive Officer system to complement and strengthen the business execution functions of Directors, who are members of the Board of Directors that are responsible for management decision-making and supervision and also have business execution functions. This system is intended to build a management structure that can respond promptly and accurately to changes in the business environment through the proactive efforts made by Executive Officers appointed by the Board of Directors to enhance and strengthen the business operations under their jurisdiction in accordance with the resolutions of the Board of Directors.

- The Board of Directors of the Company makes monthly decisions on important business operations and other legally stipulated matters of the Company, and supervises the execution of business operations of the subsidiaries through reports on the status of business operations by Representative Directors of the subsidiaries at the Board of Directors meetings, etc., in order to ensure consistency of intent as a corporate group.

- Authority and approval procedures for the execution of duties of the Group are stipulated in the "Organization Regulations," "Regulations on Division of Duties," and "Regulations on Administrative Authority." With these regulations, the Company aims to speed up decision-making and implementation of the Group's management activities and clarify the system of responsibility, and those who are delegated decision-making authority under the "Regulations on Administrative Authority" obtain sufficient information on the purpose, implementation method, costs, effects, and risks of projects, examine them with the duty of care as good managers, and make decisions that are reasonably considered to be the most appropriate for the Group. Each regulation shall be reviewed as necessary in the event of the amendment or abolishment of laws and regulations or changes in the execution of duties.

- Internal audits are also conducted from the perspective of efficiency, and necessary measures are taken based on the results of such internal audits to ensure the efficiency of the execution of duties.

(iv). Matters concerning employees to assist duties of Audit and Supervisory Committee

- The Company shall assign the employees assisting with the duties of the Audit and Supervisory Committee from among its employees, and make them dedicated members attached to the Audit and Supervisory Committee whenever possible.

(v). Matters concerning the independence of the employee in the previous item from Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) and ensuring the effectiveness of requests issued by the Audit and Supervisory Committee to the employee.

- Employees who are assisting the Audit and Supervisory Committee in the performance of its duties are subject to prior consultation with the Audit and Supervisory Committee in order to ensure their independence from Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members), in terms of their line of command, position, treatment, and other matters.

- Employees who are assigned to assist the duties of the Audit and Supervisory Committee of the Company are not subject to the direction or orders of Directors or the superiors of the departments to which such employees belong with respect to the duties assigned by the Audit and Supervisory Committee, and must exclusively follow the instructions and orders of the Audit and Supervisory Committee.

(vi). System for reporting to the Company's Audit and Supervisory Committee by the Company's Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) and employees, and Directors, Auditors and employees of the Company's subsidiaries, or persons who receive reports from them, and other systems related to reporting to the Audit and Supervisory Committee of the Company

- The Company's Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) and employees shall report to the Audit and Supervisory Committee on the status of execution of their duties through the Board of Directors meetings and other important meetings, as well as the results of audits conducted by the internal audit division.

- Upon request of the Audit and Supervisory Committee, they shall make available for inspection approval documents and other important documents related to the execution of business operations.

- The Company's Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) and employees, as well as Directors, Auditors, and employees of the Company's subsidiaries, or persons who receive reports from them, are obliged to report to the Company's Audit and Supervisory Committee any occurrence or potential occurrence of matters that would cause significant losses to the Group, or any illegal or improper acts by Directors or employees. In addition to the aforementioned reporting matters, these persons are obliged to report to the Company's Audit and Supervisory Committee on matters that the Audit and Supervisory Committee of the Company has determined should be reported.

(vii). System to ensure that a person who has reported to the Company's Audit and Supervisory Committee are not treated adversely based on the fact such a report has been made by the person

- The Group shall not treat any person who reports to the Company's Audit and Supervisory Committee in accordance with the regulations concerning the internal information provision system in any adverse manner because of such report, and the related Directors, Executive Officers, and employees shall comply with this regulation.

(viii). Policies regarding procedures for advance payment or reimbursement of expenses arising in conjunction with the execution of duties by the Company's Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and other policies for processing expenses and obligations arising with respect to execution of such duties

- If an Audit and Supervisory Committee Member requests prepayment or reimbursement of expenses incurred in the performance of their duties, the Company shall promptly dispose of such expenses or obligations, unless such expenses or obligations are not necessary for the Audit and Supervisory Committee Members to execute their duties.

(ix). Other systems to ensure effective audits by Audit and Supervisory Committee Members

- The Company strives to enhance the understanding of Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) and employees regarding Audit and Supervisory Committee audits, and to create an environment conducive to Audit and Supervisory Committee audits.

- The Company's Audit and Supervisory Committee collaborates with the Audit Office by receiving explanations from the Audit Office on the details of internal audits concerning each division of the Company and its subsidiaries.

- The Company's Audit and Supervisory Committee holds regular meetings with the Accounting Auditor to confirm the annual audit plan and to receive semi-annual reports on the results of the accounting audit. In addition, they attend the mid-term and year-end audits as necessary and obtain reports and explanations on each occasion, thereby ensuring mutual cooperation.

(2) Progress of risk management system

- The Directors of the Group have the authority and responsibility to establish and maintain the necessary systems for the management of risks that may cause losses to the Group in the areas of duties entrusted to them.

- The Accounting/General Affairs Group of the Company is in charge of managing cross-organizational risks, and the Information Management Committee was established to ensure efficient implementation of such risks, meeting 12 times in the 23rd term.

- Risk management associated with operations under the responsibility of each division is managed by the department in charge, which develops individual regulations, guidelines, and manuals, and conducts training programs.

- Important matters concerning the entire Group or fundamental management issues are decided on after deliberation by the Company’s Board of Directors.
- The Company has established a manual that defines the organization, line of command, etc. to ensure the business continuity of the entire Group in the event of a catastrophic disaster, etc. In the event of an emergency situation, an emergency task force shall be established as necessary to address the situation.

(3) Status of systems to ensure the properness of operations of subsidiaries

- The Company, as the holding company responsible for the Group’s strategic functions, has the basic role of ensuring the efficient management of the entire Group through the development of a management vision, the planning of management strategies, and the optimal allocation of management resources, and manages its subsidiaries as a unified Group with shared business strategies, while taking into account the business characteristics of each subsidiary company. The Information Management Committee has been established to build this management control system with a Group-wide perspective.
- In an effort to strengthen the supervisory function over the business execution of the subsidiaries, the Company requires the Representative Directors of subsidiaries to report the status of business execution, including business performance, at the Board of Directors meetings. In addition, important matters that affect the entire Group or the foundation of management are deliberated on by the Board of Directors prior to decision making, in order to ensure unity of intent as a corporate group. Matters concerning the management and administration of these subsidiaries are mainly managed by the Corporate Planning Group of the Company, and the standards and procedures for their management and administration are stipulated in the “Regulations for Management of Subsidiaries and Associates.”

2. Basic Views on Eliminating Anti-Social Forces and Progress of Related Efforts

The “FRANCE BED HOLDINGS Group Corporate Code of Ethics,” established for the purpose of establishing corporate ethics and earning the trust of society, clearly stipulates the exclusion of antisocial forces.

In addition, we are a member of the Federation for the Prevention of Special Violence, a public interest incorporated association that provides guidance and information sharing to prevent victimization by anti-social forces such as organized crime groups and general assemblymen, and collect information on antisocial forces.

Overview of Timely Disclosure System

A. Basic stance on timely disclosure of corporate information

Establishment of “FRANCE BED HOLDINGS Group Corporate Code of Ethics”

Given the recent trend toward cultivating compliance awareness and a growing interest in corporate social responsibility, companies are required to develop higher codes of conduct and compliance systems with corporate ethics at their core, beyond the minimum required legal compliance, as a means of promoting medium to long term growth in corporate value. In light of this situation, the Company has established its basic regulations, the “FRANCE BED HOLDINGS Group Corporate Code of Ethics,” in order to build a compliance system.

The “FRANCE BED HOLDINGS Group Corporate Code of Ethics” is intended to establish the Company’s standards of conduct, to establish corporate ethics, and to earn the trust of society, and it stipulates that officers and executives must acknowledge that it is their role to realize the spirit of this Code, and must take the initiative to ensure that all concerned parties are fully informed.

This Code stipulates that “the Company shall provide corporate information to its stakeholders, including business partners, consumers, shareholders, and investors, in a timely and appropriate manner” as one of the standards of conduct, and clearly states that the Company respects the position of stakeholders. It also stipulates that in the event of a violation of the Code of Ethics, the Company shall promptly and accurately disclose information internally and externally to fulfill its accountability responsibilities.

B. Practice of basic stance on timely disclosure of corporate information

(1). Information management system

a. Establishment of internal rules and regulations for timely disclosure of corporate information

The Company has established the following internal rules and regulations concerning the timely disclosure of corporate information.

(i). Establishment of “Insider Information Management Regulations”

The Insider Information Management Regulations stipulate the basic matters to be observed by the Company’s officers and employees in managing inside information obtained in the course of their duties and in trading the Company’s and other companies’ shares, etc., in order to contribute to the fairness and soundness of securities transactions and to ensure the Company’s credibility in the securities market, and are intended to promote timely disclosure and to prevent insider trading.

(ii). Establishment of “Disclosure Policy”

The Disclosure Policy has been established as a policy regarding the provision of information to stakeholders. The details of the Disclosure Policy are as described in “III 3. Formulation of Policies for Information Provision to Stakeholders.”

(iii). Establishment of “Regulations for Management of Subsidiaries and Associates”

As a holding company, the Company’s purpose is to control and manage the business activities of its subsidiaries. In order to fulfill this purpose, the Company has established “Regulations for Management of Subsidiaries and Associates” for management control of its subsidiaries, and collects management information other than business performance, and responds to requests for and provides instruction on the handling of such information.

b. Internal system for timely disclosure of corporate information

The Company and its Group have established the following system for the timely disclosure of corporate information to ensure the accuracy, comprehensiveness, and promptness of information.

(i). Monthly performance report by Representative Directors of subsidiaries at Board of Directors meetings

The Company requires reporting of business performance and other business execution by Representative Directors of subsidiaries at the Company’s Board of Directors meetings. Through these reports, the Company collects business performance and other management information, and supervises and provides guidance on the execution of operations by its subsidiaries in a manner that ensures uniformity of intent as a corporate group.

(ii). Establishment of “Information Management Committee”

In order to establish a centralized information management system for the Company and its Group, and to make the aforementioned “Regulations for Management of Subsidiaries and Associates” effective, the Information Management Committee has been established to collect, manage, and control corporate information (including that of subsidiaries). A Director of the Company (concurrently serves as the person responsible for the handling of information for the Stock Exchange) is appointed as the Chairman of the Committee, and a full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee member, the General Manager of each department of the Company, and the General Managers of the administrative divisions of subsidiaries are appointed as members of the Committee. This Committee holds regular meetings (once a month) to discuss predetermined agenda items and special meetings to address urgent or unexpected events, and its activities include the collection, management, and control of corporate information, as well as consideration of internal control matters such as risk management and compliance, in order to promote the integration of timely disclosure systems and corporate governance in a cross-sectional and efficient manner among Group companies.

The activities of the Committee are reported at monthly meetings of the Board of Directors.

(2). Timely disclosures

The information collected by the aforementioned information management system is, in general, basic information related to timely disclosure, and the selection of information that satisfies the requirements for timely disclosure as stipulated by the Tokyo Stock Exchange is made under the direction and supervision of the person responsible for the handling of information (who also serves as the chairman of the Information Management Committee), with the involvement of the executives of the relevant departments according to the type of information to be disclosed (information on decisions, information on occurrences, and information on financial results), and are committed to the timely and accurate disclosure of information. In particular, events and matters that are expected to have a significant impact on financial information and business results are disclosed with reference to highly important financial details, and the Accounting/General Affairs Group plays a central role in ensuring legitimacy and accuracy by referring to the opinions of outside accounting experts.

We also proactively disclose other important information that should be disclosed by our Group.

The Accounting/General Affairs Group is in charge of timely disclosure, which is disclosed via the Timely Disclosure Network (TDnet), and thereafter, as necessary, announcements are made to the press without delay (press conferences, posting of materials to press clubs, etc.) and other disclosure procedures prescribed by laws and regulations, and rules. All disclosed information is also posted on our website.

(3) Monitoring function for timely disclosure

a. Monitoring by the internal audit division

The Company has established the Audit Office, an internal audit division under the direct control of the Representative Director, Chairman and President to oversee internal audits to improve the internal audit system of the entire Group. The Audit Office conducts rigorous internal audits of the business execution of the Company and each division of the subsidiaries to ensure and improve the fairness and transparency of corporate management.

The progress of the audit activities by the Audit Office is reported at the Information Management Committee meetings as appropriate.

b. Monitoring by Audit and Supervisory Committee

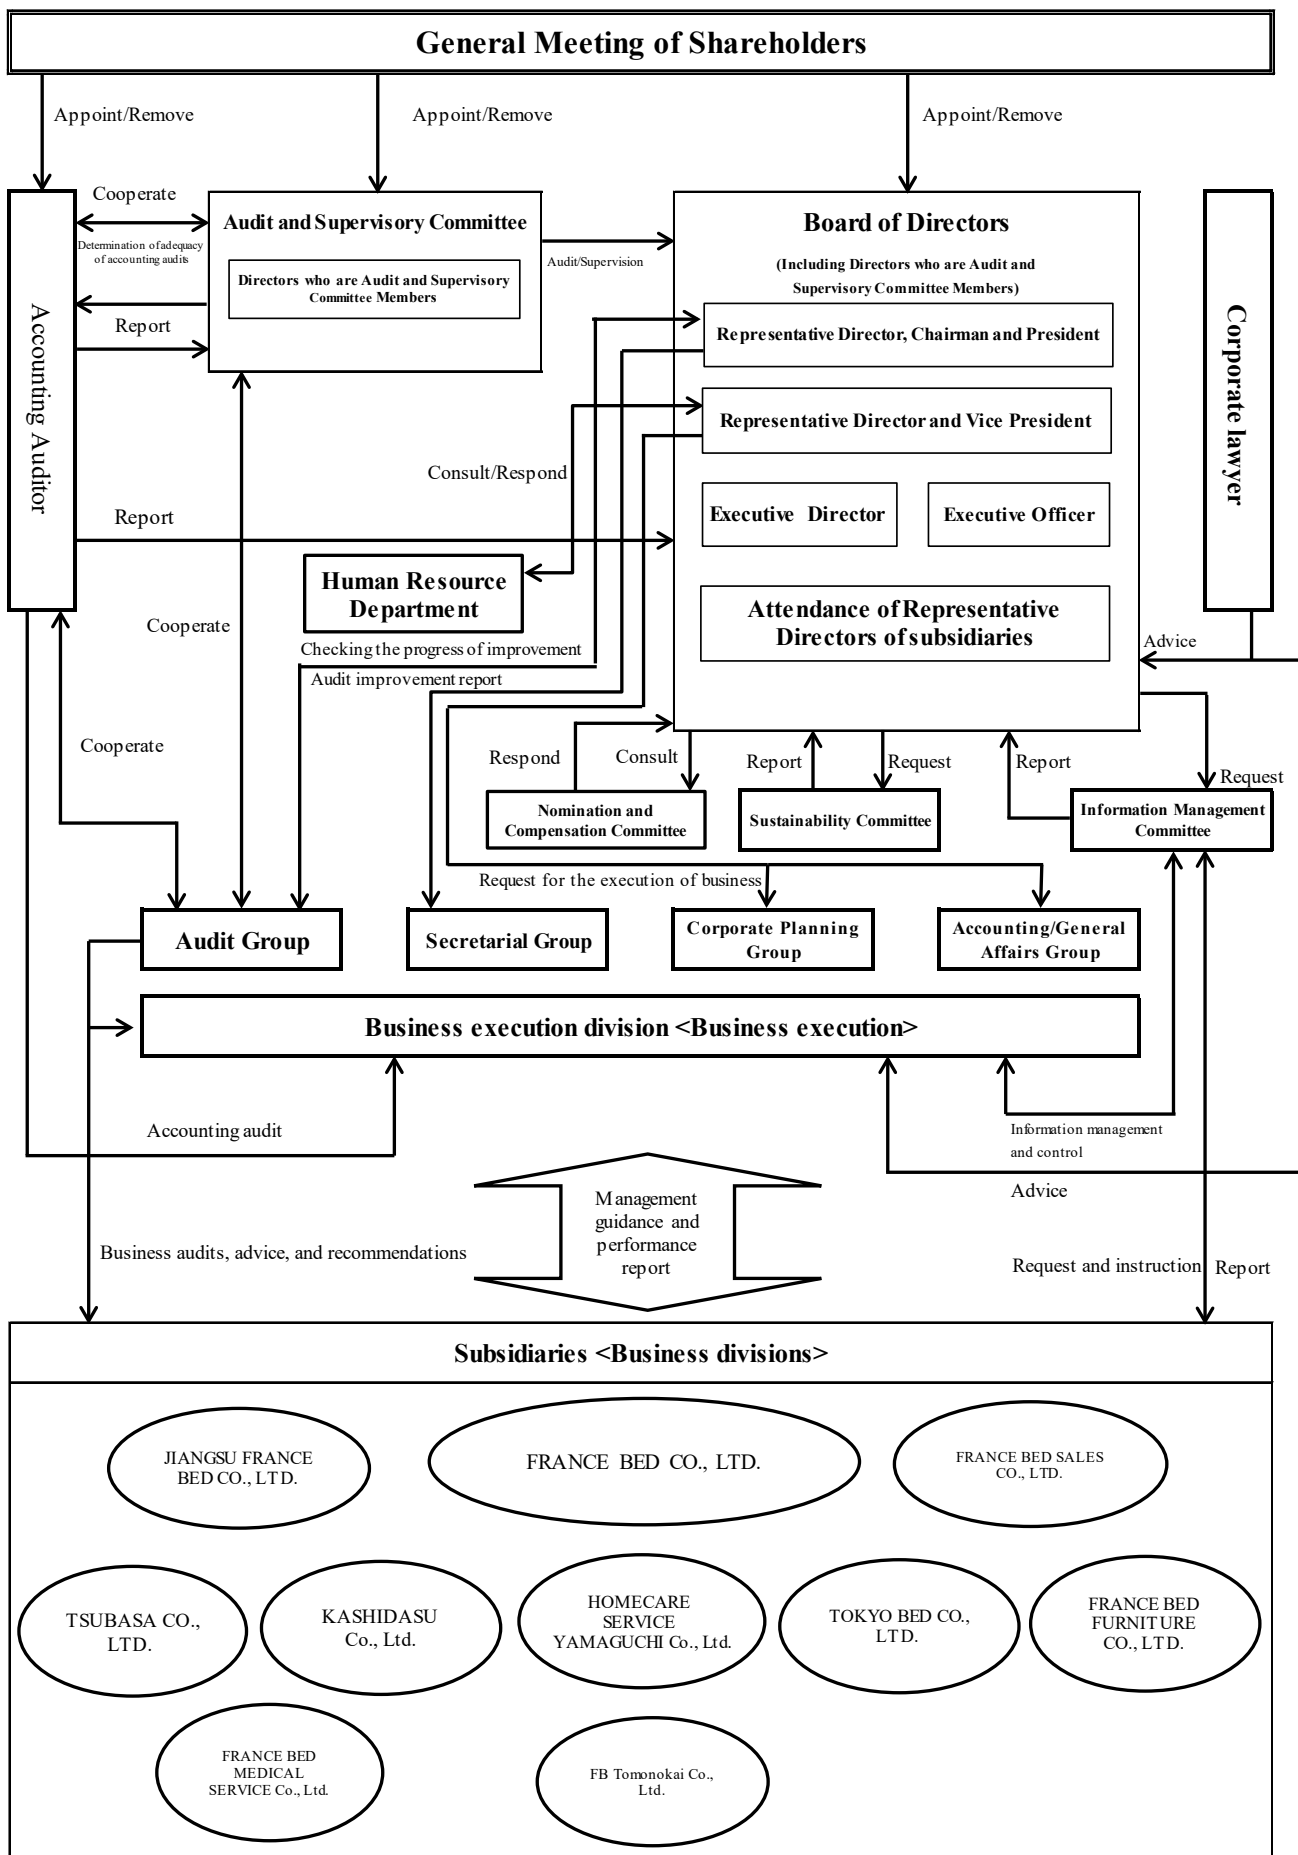

Audit and Supervisory Committee Members conduct audits by attending the Board of Directors meetings and other important meetings, obtaining reports from Directors and others on the progress of their duties, and collecting information from the persons in charge of each division, subsidiary company, and other entities. As part of this audit by the Audit and Supervisory Committee, the Audit and Supervisory Committee Members check the disclosure procedures and their contents prior to disclosure from a viewpoint independent from management. In particular, we seek opinions from Audit and Supervisory Committee Members regarding the adequacy of disclosure materials for financial results.

The Company's External Director is qualified as a certified public accountant, and full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Members have considerable knowledge of finance and accounting based on their work experience at financial institutions.
